

HDFC Bank opens branch at Dubai

- New branch located at the Dubai International Finance Centre
- Will strengthen presence in a region which is home to many NRIs

Dubai, (UAE) August 5, 2014: HDFC Bank Ltd, the second-largest private sector bank in India, opened its branch in Dubai International Financial Center to provide wealth management services to the non-resident Indians based in the UAE.

This is the bank's third branch outside India, the other two being located at Bahrain and Hong Kong. The bank will continue to operate the existing two representative offices in the UAE located at Dubai and Abu Dhabi.

The new branch will offer advisory services to NRIs regarding treasury products, trade finance, loans and other related services. The bank's Bahrain and Hong Kong branches offer corporate, trade finance, loans and deposits to both corporates and ultra high net worth individuals.

The representative offices in U.A.E. will continue to be engaged in facilitation of services for NRIs regarding their accounts held with branches in India, HDFC Bank also partners with exchange houses across Gulf Co-operation Council (GCC) countries for NRI remittances.
